

BEST BREAK-UP SONGS

Most of us have been through break-ups before. They're devastating. These are my Top 20 saddest modern break-up songs. (When I say "modern," I mean that the song is recent. Not from pre-1995).

My girlfriend broke up with me a week ago, and I'm still heartbroken.

Yes, I'm lesbian.

Thx i was wondering

I just broke up with my boyfriend so I can't exactly keep listening to Thinking Out Loud and Adore You... If anyone has some break-up-song recommendations, I like most types of music. Please only suggest recent songs (2012 the oldest) and please nothing upbeat, it just wouldn't fit right.

Just saying if any of you are having a bad day if you listen to Avril's songs you'll be able to find a lot of them relatable and her music always helps me. So y'all should go listen to her albums and see which songs will help you the most coz no lie, they really really help.

Me and my bf split up a week ago and he's moved on already like 2 years meant nothing this is a good playlist to get all the tears out tbh

Not a fan of Adele being the number 1 (I am aware this is a personal list, so no need to attack me) any other song on this list could easily beat her.

City and colour - little hell. Beck - everybody's gotta learn sometime and guess I'm doin fine. Cai.ro- addict. Daughter - youth. The toxic airbourne eent - all ive ever wanted. Vinnie paz - is happiness just a word. Immortal technique - crimes of the heart. Jedi mind tricks - black winter day and razor blade salvation.. just to name a few.. enjoy

The Daughter album IS a great breakup album- so is MSMR's with Hurricane and Bones! :)

A breakup list without Taylor Swift is a break up list in name alone. How can you count out the break up queen?

Teardrops on my guitar

I quite like you belong with me

I have been crushed by my 19 out of 20 dates its hard me my friend Jon Isaiah Seth and Zach went to Mc Donalds™ and I met this beautiful girl and Her name was Hannah she was so pretty Zach and Jon dared me to ask her out and I'm happy they did and she said yes and she was number 20 but listen a week after we broke up :(and I couldn't breathe it felt like I locked myself in my house called Tyler over and everything but nothing worked it was impossible to get over my friends took me to laser tag I seen that same girl I SHOT HER WITH MY BULLETS OF AWESOMENESS YEAH but it didn't make me feel better Someone tried to get me to result to drinking but I didn't and nothing worked and today I'm still not over it please help me with advice or anything

Aw you should've added Breathe Me by Sia.

Also, Fall For You by Secondhand Serenade.

And the only reason by 5sos

Just broke up and have some deep feelings after those songs thanks for uploading (now i'm single you know ;))

No one likes me in my school and i have a crush on someone and they hate me

That's messed up. In my school, a lot of boys don't like me because a lot of girls have a crush on me:(

I miss her so much....

I think the saddest one on here was Here Without You. Such a classic

I can't take #2 seriously after my friend made jokes about her period in reference to the song.

Whiskey lullaby by Brad paisley

Where is MCR's I Don't Love You.

You could easily put pretty when you cry, by lana del rey.

I have got my heart broken 8/19/14-11/5/14 it hurts a lot but these songs really got me through it ! ☺

I had a break up the same day. Creepy

I'm pretty sure No Doubt's Don't speak deserves to be higher on the list than slot #8. It is well known, will remain a timeless song, its always sung along, has won more awards than any of the other songs on this list, the lyrics alone pierces, the song was actually written by Gwen and band member Tony's about their own break up and still suck it up to remain a band, the vocals have lots of emotion as well as angst and its Gwen anyway. But Im not choosing favoritism here. It really is a great song and well known and a 90's highlight that everyone sang and felt as a break up song. I see how Adele is #1 and the words are nice and its an emotional ballad but its embedded in our mind due to constant rotation on radio and Adele took time for the US to take notice. When don't speak came out it exploded!

Me and my fiance broke up 6 years ago and the pains still there its hard thank God for the songs music always makes things better at least you can have a good cry the only song i approve as being sad is back to black. the other's are... sad i guess but not the type of sad you want to listen to when you're really sad. they're more like radio sad you know
